Senator McManus Sworn into Michigan Senate

Legislator Releases Office Contact Information, Will Hold District Office Hours

(LANSING)— Senator Michelle McManus, R-Lake Leelanau, today was officially sworn in as state Senator of the 35th District during a formal ceremony in the Senate Chambers. Sen. McManus also announced office contact information and will conduct district office hours to meet with residents.

“It was truly a memorable and exciting day to be sworn into the Michigan Senate today,” McManus said. “This will be a productive year in the Senate and I am eager to get working for the people of the 35th District.”

The oath-of-office was administered by Michigan Supreme Court Chief Justice Maura D. Corrigan. All 38 members of the Michigan Senate were sworn in during the ceremony.

McManus accepted the oath by promising to “support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Michigan and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of office of Senator according to the best of my ability.”

Senator McManus was surrounded by approximately 45 friends and family who traveled to Lansing this morning by bus to join her on this special day. Nearly every corner of the 35th Senate District was represented in the diverse group.

In addition to her swearing in ceremony, Senator McManus today announced her office contact information in Lansing.

“My staff and I encourage residents to contact my office with any concerns or questions pertaining to state government,” McManus said. “I want the residents of all 11 counties I represent to know that while I am in Lansing performing my legislative duties I am still easily accessible to them.”

Constituents may reach Senator McManus in one of the following ways:

Senator McManus also announced today that she will be conducting monthly office hours meetings in all 11 counties of the 35th District. The meetings will be held once a month in a different county. Residents are encouraged to attend the meetings to discuss their concerns or opinions regarding state government.

“This is a terrific opportunity to get in touch with the people of my district,” McManus said. “I hope to see new faces each month and get to know what my constituents are concerned about or interested in.”

Dates and locations where the meeting will be held will be announced later this month.
